SEEN, HEARD AND TOLD

By W. W. WHITAKER
When he feels like it.

(By Mrs. WWW)

The editor must be better, judging by his repartee when told by Mable "to ask the Lord to help ypu Whyte", and he came back with "you ask Him, honey."

Keene Huffington, cynic, remarked "Whyte didn't want to ask a favor from a stranger."

We received a letter from one of our favorite people last Monday when Aubrey Thompson, a charter member, renewed her subscription Aubrey is spending the summer at Lookout Mountain, Tenn. with her daughter Thelma, Mrs. B. C. Robinson and family. She had an extra visit over on "The Ridge" (Missionary Ridge) with Mrs. Robinson Sr while Thelma and family vacationed at St. Petersburg, Fla. The son-in-law caught a shark and Thelma came home with the car loaded down with citrus fruit, "just as you and I."

Soon our charter members will be renewing their subscriptions. We are forever grateful to "the 400" subscribers we had before we even installed our press in the old tin building owned and rented to us by the late George Grant. Fred Griffin owns that site now and has a fine automobile agency there.

That reminds us, Louise Avent's new blue Cadillac becomes her so Say, it's air-conditioned too.

All of us will miss Idelle Odom and Polly Odom Buchanan who operated Grenada Beauty Salon for years.

See where C. C. Costilow's paper is now delivered to Tie Plant instead of Big Creek. A lot of Grenada County Route mail is sent through Big Creek in Calhoun County.

Louie Friedman has two fishing partners, Dr. Isacon, who has an aversion to throwing back small fish and banker H. J. Ray, Sr. who tosses them back with "its a Dr. Isacon, throw it back". Editor Whitaker calls all small ones "Speck Davises" instead of the old familiar name of Ike Butlers. So goes the fish tale. Where their comments come from is understandable only to fishermen

This reminds us that Fisherman-Jeweler Daves came into the office the other day, and was awfully upset over conditions at Grenada Lake. Daves was upset over the way a lot of the boaters and some fishermen will speed right through a place that is being fished, thus scaring te fish and causing them to quit biting. We told Daves that courtesy is bred into people, and that if a person does not know the simple rules of courtesy by the time that he is able to buy a boat and motor, then he probably never will learn them. If boaters and fishermen would just think of the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" that would be all that is necessary. Remember that fellow, sitting in his boat fishing, is having as much fun as your are riding around in your boat. Slow down, or go around other fishermen when you are out riding.

Riding around town is short of amazing these days with all the new and beautiful homes being built. Our neighbor and friend Hugh Stanfill Jr. and family will soon move out to the Avenue of Pines, Hoffa Sub-Division, to their fine new home. Its located east of Louise and Clayton Carpenter's home.

The homes located on Avenue of Pines, owned by Louise and Harold Rotler, the Carpenters, the one built by Hugh Lumpkin, before he was transferred away, are among the finest homes in Grenada. Many more lovely homes in Grenada. Many more lovely homes in that neighborhood, but will get to them later.

The Presbyterians are looking around for a minister, and its rumored that a young man, now in Scotland has been mentioned for the pastorship. Ernestine Martin remarked that the visiting preacher that she liked best, up and joined te Baptist Church. Oh, me.

From what I see, politics are getting pretty hot in Beat 5.

Brother Jessie Lott, candidate for constable, Beat Five, said his boy got a hold of his candidate cards, and he had to get some more.

Mrs. Earl Dennis' Father Dies In Greenville

Mr. J. W. McElwee, 76 years old father of Mrs. Earl Dennis of Grenada, died of a heart attack at his home in Greenville at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday, June 29, 1955.

Mr. McElwee, a retired businessman of Greenville, was very active and up until the time of the heart attack was apparently in good health.

Mr. McElwee was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Greenville, having been a member for many years.

Mr. McElwee is survived by his wife; 4 daughters, including Mrs. Earl Dennis of Grenada; and one son.

Funeral services will be held from the First Baptist Church in Greenville, Friday afternoon.

To the bereaved ones, we extend our sympathy.

—Attention Sportsmen—

Remember, your combination hunting and fishing license will expire today (Thursday), June 30th. Better get your new license TODAY.

Crops are on the mend since we are having some good old hot summer days and nights. The late Mr. B. C. Duncan said once, "I'm always glad when I have to use a palm leaf fan at night, because I know that my cotton is growing."

The time has arrived when a young man with a strong back and a second hand tractor cannot buy a cotton plantation and pay for it in 2 or 3 years. Cotton cannot be produced in volume any more. The cotton farmers cost has gone up 12 percent the last few years, his acreage has been cut and the price level lowerel. You cannot buy a farm which must cut its cotton acreage, and increase corn and soy bean crops, fence cover crop pastures, and pay the banker as easily as they did 5 years ago. Secretary Benson's policy is at fault He has, with the help of the President, refused to offer our American cotton to world trade at competitive prices.

It is estimated that the government is paying between $700,000 to a million dollars for crop storage alone. This very policy is forcing down to under $1,000 per year, the cash income of 1,500,000 farmers, and 60,000 of this number are cotton farmers. Congressman Jamie Whitten of our district and Senator Jim Eastland, both tell us, in no uncertain words, "cotton is in trouble."

There has been some cattle and hog stealing going on down at Oxberry. Sheriff Davis has been notified and is on the job.

There is a new Gold Coast in Tallahatchie County located just north of Grenada County line on the Charleston road. Go to it boys, its election year, you won't be bothered.

GRENADA COUNTY "FARM OF THE WEEK"

If this is YOUR farm, you can get, without charge, a nicely mounted picture of the farm, but you must come to the Grenada County Weekly and identify it.

While you are in the GCW office, we hope to interview you and get a story, for subsequent publication, about this property and about your family.

If you need other photographs of the above, either the size shown, or larger or on postal cards, the GCW can, and will arrange for them. A reasonable charge of course will be made for these reproductions. Let us show you samples.

Grenada County Library News

Celebrate the Fourth with up to the minute reading in American History.

Grenada County Library has "The Mainstream of American Series."

"Presented in terms of people and in the exciting form of a narrative, this new approach to American history covers the entire sweep of our nation's past from the earliest days of exploration to the recent days of turmoil and achievement. The Civil War South, the Civil War North, the opening of the Far West, the days of colonization, the Revolution - these are only a few subjects to be covered by the series."

"The Age of the Moguls", by Stewart H. Holbrook; "Glory, God and Gold", by Paul I. Wellman; "From Lexington to Liberty", by Bruce Lancaster the frist three and now "The Land They Fought For" by Clifford Dowdey. In "The Land They Fought For", Clifford Dowdey surveys the gathering storm - the disparity between North and South economically, South Carolina's defiance of the federal tariff act of 1832, the stark horror of Nat Turner's Rebellion and its subsequent harvest of fear, and the conflict between ways of life within the South itself.

In this stirring and thoughtful work we see Davis, Calhoun, Toombs Stephens Jackson, Lee, all waiting to take their parts in the tragedy that was to be played out on their own beloved land.

This is history, accurate and moving, seen through the eyes of the men who lived it - and told in a masterly fashion by one of today's most eminent historians.

LADRON VAUGHN

Candidate for Sheriff

A sheriff's responsibilities require and rightfully demand a qualified and experienced officer to conduct the duties of this office.

My law enforcement experience began in 1946 for the City of Grenada, and after resigning in 1953 I entered into business at the Railroad Restaurant and Lunch.

My many years of experience as an officer of the law affords me with the knowledge to be able to handle any situation which has and will require the necessity of accurate, prompt and thorough execution on any and all occasions.

I am a native of the South, born in the neighboring community of Calhoun City, Mississippi and am acquainted with the issues at hand.

Your endorsement and vote Tuesday, August 2nd for me to be your SHERIFF will be appreciated.

(By Bervil Elder)

Potatoes and ice cream are features on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for July.

What fits better into menus for hot July days than chilled potato salad and creamy, cool ice cream?

Both fresh and processed lemons and limes are "cool" fruits for the hot season. Try them in frosty glasses of lime or lemonade, lime sherbet, lemon or lime wedges with iced tea, fish and other foods.

And for the traditional Fourth of July treat, there will be plenty of watermelons.

As you shop during July keep an eye out for good buys of locally grown vegetables as tomatoes, snapbeans, corn or butterbeans - all good for eating fresh, canning or freezing.

Other food plentifuls include young chickens, milk and other dairy products, beef, rice, vegetable fats and oils, lard and fresh and frozen halibut.

Defrosting Meat

Frozen meats may be defrosted in the refrigerator, at room temperature, by an electric fan or in water. The best of these methods are the refrigerator method and the room temperature method. Then after you have defrosted the meat, cook it exactly as you would fresh meat.

To know about how much time to allow for meat to defrost in the refrigerator, allow:

Large roasts - 4 to 6 hours per lb.; small roasts - 3 to 4 hours per lb.; 1-inch steaks - 12 hours.

At room temperature: Large roasts - 2 to 3 hours per pound; small roasts - 1 to 2 hours per pound; 1-inch steaks - 2 to 3 hours.

If you cook frozen meats without defrosting them, cook them one-third to one-half again as long as defrosted meats.

Milk for Weight-Watchers

If pounds are your problem - either too many or too few - nutritionists say rely on milk as a basic food.

If you are "reducing", count on milk for generous amounts of protein, calcium and nutrients need for good health at a moderate calorie-count. Remember you can get all the many important nutrients in milk, except fat and vitamin A, from skim milk or buttermilk.

The high-quality protein of milk is one of its special assets for "reducers." Research has shown that more protein than usual in the diet benefits te person who is cutting down pounds.

Here are approximate calories in milk and milk products as guides to menus for losing or gaining weight, whichever is advised by your doctor:

One measuring cup (½ pint) of fresh fluid milk, 165 calories; fresh fluid skim milk, 85; buttermilk, 85; half and half, 330; chocolate flavored milk drink, 185; malted milk beverage, 290; evaporated milk, diluted with equal water, 175.

Four tablespoons (¼ cup) of nonfat dry milk, 110 calories; ½ cup ice cream, 150; ½ cup milk sherbet, 120; 1 ounce or 1-inch cube cheddar cheese, 115; ½ cup cottage cheese (not creamed), 110.

AIR FORCE RECRUITING NEWS

Sgt. Jack Rainwater of the local Air Force Recruiting Station announced that within the next few days a new reenlistment policy will go into effect that should prove to be good news to veterans of all services in the Grenada area.

The new policy will allow some veterans who have needed skills to reenlist in grade even though they have been separated from the service more than 90 days. Those veterans will also have the opportunity to select an assignment from a number of bases in the United States and in some cases will have a choice of overseas theater where they would like to serve.

The plan was devised to increase the procurement of the much needed prior service technician and to insure assignment where skills could be used immediately.

Veterans who possess an occupational specialty classed as needed and have been out of service since July 1951 will also receive reenlistment grade consideration under the provisions of the program.

In specialties which are classed in the surplus group, reenlistment can be affected with the special provisions for re-training in a chosen field which is classed as needed.

Periodically the Recruiting Station will receive a breakdown of skills categorized in order of the Air Force needs. The breakdown will encompass all occupational fields and will be listed in six classifications ranging from scarce to surplus.

The first list has already been received at the local Recruiting Station and any veteran desiring information on the new policy is welcome to call at the Recruiting office located at Room 202 Post Office Building, Grenada, Sgt. Rainwater said.

The First Physician

The first recorded physician of history was Imhotep, who practiced medicine under Zoser, king of the Third Egyptian Dynasty, in the year 2900 B.C. As the Ebers and other Egyptian papyri prove, materia medica and therapeutics were remarkably well developed by the early inhabitants of the Nile River Valley.

Great medical progress has been made over the centuries. We are proud of our part in modern health service, and compounding and dispensing medication are our contribution to your good health.

OBSERVANCE OF 20th ANNIVERSARY OF KEY BROTHERS FLIGHT IS SET

The 20th anniversary of the most important single aeronautical achievement in Mississippi history, the establishment of the world record endurance flight by Al and Fred Key in 1935, will be observed in Meridian on June 30-July 2, inclusive.

The famed Key brothers established the yet unbroken record of 653 hours and 34 minutes aloft on July 1, 1935, after two heartbreaking unsuccessful attempts.

Several thousand aviation enthusiasts from all over the nation are expected to join Meridianites in paying tribute to the Meridian boys who performed the feat in a Curtis Robin aircraft with a Wright Whirlwind engine over what is now known as Key Field.

The sturdy plane, known as the "Ole Miss", is now being taken out of mothballs and will be completely rebuilt for its last flight to a rendezvous with history in the Smithsonian Institute where it will rest alongside such great aircraft as Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis" and the plane first flown by the Wright Brothers at Kitty Hawk, over 50 years ago.

The program, sponsored by the Meridian civic clubs, the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce, veteran and military organizations, will open on the morning of June 30th and will be terminated on July 2nd when the "Ole Miss" will be piloted to Washington by the Keys for acceptance as an exhibit at the aviation museum.

The record-breaking flight of the Key Brothers began quietly enough on June 4, 1935. But when they came down 28 days later more than 10,000 highly excited spectators were jamming the Meridian airport.

Born in Kemper county near Dekalb, the Key Brothers had been flying about 10 years when they took the "Ole Miss" aloft on its historic flight.

The 1935 victory was not accomplished easily, however. In fact, it was won on their third attempt. They were forced down by engine trouble once after approximately 100 hours in the air. On a second attempt they remained aloft for 200 hours before bad weather grounded them.

Previous official records had been set by the Hunter Brothers, General Carl Spatz, Reg Robbins, and others, but the mark established by Al and Fred Key was so far beyond any of these that it has never since been beaten.

The feat, far from serving merely as a stunt, has contributed greatly to the furtherance of aviation. Refueling of jet bombers in air today might not be as commonplace were it not for the determination of the Meridian brothers.

Both of the Keys to this day are contributing to the furtherance of aviation after chalking up enviable military records.

Fred and Al, on the morning of Pearl Harbor attack, were flying B-17 bombers to Newfoundland to be delivered to England. These ships, of course, were diverted, sent to the West Coast and to the South Pacific. In service there during almost all of the air conflict, both were awarded the Dinstinguished Flying Cross. In the latter stages of the war, Al was transferred to England where he commanded a heavy bomber squadron.

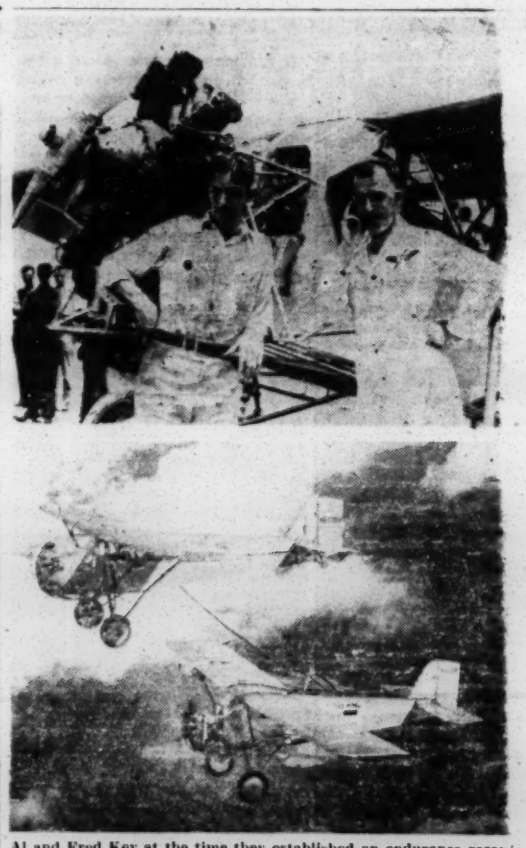
Since the war, Fred has made his home in Meridian where he is manager of the Municipal Airport, Key Field, and operator of Key Brothers Flying Service. Al, a colonel in the Air Force, at the present is stationed at Bogota, Colombia, South America, where he heads the United States Air Mission to that country.

For a number of years prior to this assignment, he was with the All-Weather flying service experimenting in blind flying, cosmic ray research, and was for some time stationed in the Pentagon in Washington.

The observance next month will be participated in by all of the men who took a major part in the endurance flight. Among these are Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, Colonel Roscoe Turner, Luke Williamson and Bill McDonald, wingmen with General Claire Channault's old "Flying Circus". Also on hand will be A. D. Hunter, who worked with Al and Fred to covert the Curtis Robin into the "Ole Miss." He is now working to help restore the craft.

The committee in charge of the observance has also announced plans for securing an outstanding exhibit of modern type commercial and military aircraft.

In establishing their record the Key brothers travelled the equivalent of more than two trips around the world, consumed 6,000 gallons of gasoline and 300 gallons of oil, and made 438 contacts in air for re-fueling.



Al and Fred Key at the time they established an endurance record which has stood for 20 years. The "Ole Miss" below, shown in the process of being re-fueled, will be taken out of mothballs for its last journey to the Smithsonian Institute in Washington.

There's a NEW LOOK coming in transportation

And with this New Look will come finer, safer personal travel and more economical transportation of raw materials and finished products.

All this will happen when real competition is permitted between rail, air, highway and water transportation—each performing the job best suited to it—each winning customers by the quality of service rendered.

The tide is turning....

... toward giving America competitive transportation. A Presidential Cabinet committee recommends it. Bills in Congress clear the way for it. You can support it. Talk with your friends. Let your representatives in Congress know how you feel. Remember, truly competitive transportation is best for shippers and best for you—the folks who eventually pay the bills.

America needs the BEST

... and the Illinois Central will work today, tomorrow and every day, to provide Mid-America with the finest, most up-to-date transportation available anywhere, any time.

WAYNE A. JOHNSTON
President

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD
Main Line of Mid-America

Look! 4 Doors and no center posts!

It's the new kind of hardtop— The 4-Door Riviera!

You drop the side windows down on this airy beauty of a Buick with the solid steel roof—and it's as wide open as a Convertible, with no center posts to mar your view.

That's what makes it a hardtop.

But what makes it a very special kind of hardtop is the fact that it has four doors instead of two.

Cheers? Brother! – they're really rolling out for Buick's 4-Door Riviera!

Now, you see, you can have the tremendously popular styling of a true hardtop combined with the room, comfort and full convenience of a 4-door Sedan.

And it took a completely new kind of body design to come up with this marvel—a new kind of body built to wholly new structural principles.

So it looks like Buick's done it again—because the 4-Door Riviera is a sweeping sensation across the nation.

It's rolling off the assembly lines in volume numbers to meet the demand – in the high-powered CENTURY Series, and in the bedrock-priced SPECIAL Series, illustrated here.

And each one is all Buick—with record-high V8 power, the level steadiness of all-coil-springing, the extra roominess of a full-size Buick Sedan—and, most certainly, with the instantaneous getaway response and bettered gas mileage of Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Come in for a look at the brand-new kind of hardtop—the 4-Door Riviera. You'll find it priced at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model—and a buy too thrilling to pass up.

Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.*

TOWN TALK . . .

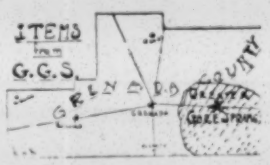
As a result of Easter Sunrise services held on the rim of Grand Canyon for past 21 years by Kiwanis International, plans are afoot to build on the spot a chapel to be known as the "Shrine of the Ages", and will be used by Protestant, Catholic and Jews. Public subscriptions are being sent by people from all over the world, and the shrine will be completed in time for Easter services in 1957 and millions of people will see it on TV and also hear the service on radio. Construction cost will exceed a million dollars. Aren't Americans a wonderful people? —Ed.



Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gillon, son and grandfather were guests at dinner Father's Day of Mr. and Mrs Thad Campbell and family in Grenada.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gillon and children spent the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Miller near Sarepta. They went especially to be with Dr. and Mrs. Forest Tutor and daughter of New York who were guests in the Miller home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gillon and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Clark in Greenwood. Martha Gillon returned home with them after a visit in the Clark home

DISSTON
DA-211 Chain Saw

Tough enough for the biggest timber!

9 H. P. Mercury Gasoline Engine

For fast, effortless cutting, you can't beat the DA-211! The Mercury gasoline engine is a real power house . . . perfectly balanced, no vibration. It makes a real labor-saving combination with Disston's fast cutting chipper chains.

Converts for 1 or 2-Man Operation

You can do your own felling and bucking, or tackle some really big timber with a helper, by adding the quickly detachable one-piece tailstock. From the second you pull the starter you'll know that this light, rugged workhorse meets the needs of modern farmers, timbermen and industry for a lighter saw with the speed and power of much heavier units.

Try out the Disston DA-211 and see for yourself!

It's available in either "C" or "L" type chains; guide rail lengths of 2 to 7 feet.

"Sure, We Use McCulloch Chain Saws They Do The Job"
. . . says Albert Belcher

"We use McCulloch Chain Saws because they have what it takes to perform day in and day out on any kind of logging job . . . And we recommend them for loggers who want to lower costs and speed up production . . . "

So says Albert Belcher, president of W. A. Belcher Lumber Company, past president of the Alabama Forest Products Association and a director of the Southern Pine Association.

"We've been using McCulloch Chain Saws exclusively since they came on the market in 1948," he says. "Their light weight, ease of handling and dependability make McCulloch's four outstanding models top choice with us."

W. A. Belcher Lumber Company is one of the largest lumber manufacturers in the South.

Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners!

162 H.P. V8
180 H.P. V8

See that fine fat mountain yonder?
You can iron it out, flat as a flounder . . . and easy as whistling!

Just point one of Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners at it (either the 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" or the 180-h.p. "Super Turbo-Fire"*) . . . and pull the trigger!

Barr-r-r-r-o-o-O-O-OOM! Mister, you got you a flat mountain!

. . . At least it feels flat. For here are engines that sing as sweetly as a dynamo . . . built to pour out a torrent of pure, vibrationless power. Big-bore V8's with the shortest stroke in the industry.

So most of the time they loaf. Even at the speed limit they just dream along, purring out a fraction of their strength.

An engineer can understand why they are so hyper-efficient. But you don't have to be an engineer to know that these are the sweetest running V8's you ever piloted. Just come in and try one out!

*Optional at extra cost.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Background Scripture: Jeremiah 22: 36; II Kings 23:31—24:7.
Devotional Reading: Jeremiah 1:14-19.

Patriotism

Lesson for July 3, 1955

IS A man subversive if he—has an international outlook?
fails to conform to popular styles of patriotism?
will not promise to support every war in which his country engages?
speaks out against his nation's sins?

In this year of grace 1955, men who fill the above qualifications are cried down as subversive. Perhaps it has always been so. But in the sight of God, some such men have been honored above their stone-throwing fellow-citizens. one such person of record had what most people would call a "bad" record. He had been accused of subversive activities. He had predicted defeat for his nation while at war, and had publicly advised surrender. He had a record of jail sentences. He just missed being executed several times; and finally died, so tradition says, at the hands of a lynching party. Nevertheless he was one of God's great prophets. His name was Jeremiah.

Dr. Foreman

Professional Patriots

Jeremiah's chief enemies were also called prophets by their contemporaries. History calls them false prophets, though to the "man in the street" of that time they seemed to be the true ones. The false prophets did not really have a word from the Lord. Their words were suggested by what the people wanted to hear. Their sermons were suggested by their own desire for prestige. They were suggested by their wish for a good income. Not long ago an American organization, professedly patriotic, was selling mottoes to put on automobiles, reading "The only good Ism is Americanism," or some such phrase. The decals with that motto were selling like hot cakes, for people did not like to seem unpatriotic by refusing to buy and carry a slogan like that. But the mayor of the city investigated and as a result the sale of the things was stopped. He discovered that an advertising agency was getting 75% of the money and the "patriotic" organization 25%. The real promoters were not patriots, they were profiteers. They would have sold any motto at all for a 75% rake-off. Not every one who hollers for his country is a patriot.

Justice for All

Nevertheless, just as glass "diamonds" don't make real diamonds impossible, so false prophets do not destroy the truth of real prophets, and false patriotism does not do away with true love of one's country. That man Jeremiah was a real patriot. That is to say, he had a real love for his people and his land. (Incidentally, he was one of the first persons to call mistreatment of the soil a sin.) The word "prosperity" has a magic sound for most minds. Jeremiah was tough enough to ask questions about the prosperity some people had in his time. He threw pitiless light on the fact that some few were getting rich at the expense of the many. He had what seemed then a strange idea, though it turned out to be true, that the very wealth which was piled up in the palaces of Jerusalem was an unhealthy sign, for to use modern language, the wealth was badly distributed. Most of his fellow-countrymen were under-paid, many of them were slaves, while the king and his court were rolling in luxury. True patriotism asks as Jeremiah did: What is happening to the people, all the people? and not simply: Am I getting ahead?

Leadership

Jeremiah preached to the people, but some of his most important messages were directed to the leaders of his nation, the king, the princes, the priests. He knew that the men at the top make the policies which affect the masses. Jeremiah's preaching failed to stave off the end which he predicted, for the men at the top did not change their ways. The success or failure of a nation depends on the stamina and character of the people, but especially of the leaders. No one can consider himself patriotic who votes for a second-rate candidate for public office if a first-rate candidate is available.

Town Talk

BY FED ROBINSON

Some one sent me a clipping which read "We can give only what we have to give . . ." and there's truth in that sentence. We surely cannot give what we do NOT have, so if we give and when we give, we must give what we have to give. Many people seem to believe that unless one has a great deal of money they are not in a position to give away anything at all. We believe if you are a regular reader of this column you have by now caught the idea that this writer believes we all have a great many things we can give away and most of them are more important than money. Yes, I have always believed that true happiness is found in giving away part of our selves and that this giving of ourselves is more valuable than giving away money. Indeed for the majority of us we've got to give something besides money, because money is something we dont have much of. What are some of the things we CAN give away to our friends worth more to them than money? Well, we can give to our friends PRAISE. The shortest commodity in this world today is PRAISE and every one who can speak at all could pass around this most wanted item . . . praise. Then we could give our understanding. We could give our sincere interest in other's troubles (incidently in doing that we'd forget about our own troubles) and we could give our kindness. Why do not people make more use of the marvelous power of kindness? Kindness is the greatest lever to move the hearts of men that the world has ever known. It is the kingpin of success in life, it is the prime factor in overcoming friction and making the human machinery run smoothly, and it cost so little to be kind to others.

I have just seen a picture - a dramatic picture - of 91 pairs of worn shoes. Some are large and some are small. Some had been worn by men and some by women and some of them had been worn by children. The story with the picture stated these were shoes that had been worn by people - real human people - who had been killed in automobile accidents in Summit County, Ohio within the last 12 months. Fifty two men 14 women 17 boys and 8 girls under age 20 are listed among the victims.

Well, those people did not lose their lives because of any bad habits of the automobile. These people lost their lives because - in most cases - some smart guy was trying to show-off or he was driving before he had learned some of the things an automobile will NOT do as he had learned of the things a car can do "Some of these shoes" the story says "might have pressed hard on accelerators or jammed on brakes in that final second. Some may have stepped from safety into the path of an oncoming car. Some were hurrying; some were at play. Some empty shoes were merely standing still when it happened.

Well, thirty days in a cool, wet damp jail is time enough to think about how foolish it is to get a smart-aleck behind a steering wheel. Just we predict the time is near when courts will decide against a money fine which helps out with needed money for cities and counties which is one explanation why they still assess money fines and the courts will change their cry of "Fine of $50.00" to "I sentence you to 30 days in jail and the revocation of your drivers license for 6 months and when this is over the driver of automobiles will be more careful and when this is done the death toll will be cut in half and we will not be among the unfortunate ones."

This year marks the anniversary of our 20th year in the Livestock Auction business. The livestock industry in the South has grown by leaps and bounds during this time and it has been our aim constantly, to furnish the best in livestock marketing for the people in our trade territory

The leaders in our organization are the same as they were 20 years ago when we pioneered the livestock auction in this section of the South. It is our desire to give the feeders and producers the top market for their livestock and to aid them in every way in marketing their livestock. With this in mind we have secured buyers from:

Swift and Co. — Armour and Co. — Wilson and Co. Mid-South Packing Co. — Rath Packing Co. — Bryan Bros. Packing Co. — Shaw Packing Co. — Independent Packing Co. — Robison Packing Co. — Jackson Packing Co. — Baker Packing Co. — Mallette & Co in addition to our connection of years standing with Corn Belt stocker and feeder buyers of cattle & hogs.

In addition to this and in order to help and cooperate with our sellers we are, as of July 1st, reducing our commission to 3 percent to everyone. Before you market your livestock, visit our auction sale held each Tuesday and you will be able to make your own decision as to where your livestock will sell best. You can always do the best where there is a group of good buyers

Come and be with us at our Auction Sale each Tuesday
We Trade Privately Daily.

Remember our commission rate is 3 percent
Effective July 1st.
